

TREND ALERT

Be inspired by all things vintage this season – the pretty, pastel look is going to be key. Marianne Johnson of Sweet Pea Floral Design (07867 564021, www.sweetpeaflowers.co.uk) has created a stunning floral mannequin (pictured), showcasing the sorbet hues we're talking about. "The vintage look is by far the most popular with our brides," she says. To create a similar style at your wedding, choose garden roses, peonies and hydrangeas in antique shades of pink, purple and peach.

FLORAL FASHION

You don't have to go for full-on flower power to incorporate blooms into your bridal attire. The latest collection from New York-based bridal designer Amsale featured pretty organza flowers on simple, elegantly understated bridal gowns. For more inspiration, view the collection at www.amsale.com.
